

Winter Break

Registration Form

The Brent Woodall Foundation will be closed for all regularly scheduled sessions, groups, PREP, and BLIP from December 23, 2013, through January 4, 2014. We will offer Winter Sessions during that time. The Winter Sessions will consist of small group activities aimed at maintaining skills when not in a one-to-one therapeutic setting. In a small group, each child will rotate through six stations that will focus on a cognitive or language skills, including matching, imitation, receptive language, expressive language, fine motor, and social skills. These cognitive and language skills will be taught using different modalities including movement, music, sensory, toys and games, pre-academic, and art. Snack time and bathroom breaks will also be included. The small groups will be created based on the skill level of each child. This is a program for children ages 2-9.

Children may attend any of the four sessions offered. Each session is $250.00. This price includes all registration and supply fees for the Winter Sessions.
